AMBULANCE Direct Debit Agreements The Membership Fee will be deducted from your nominated financial account by AV in the following manner:

- Initially draw the relevant Membership Fee within five (5) business days of receiving your agreement; and
- Thereafter, deduct the Membership Fee within two (2) business days of the anniversary of your Membership.

The following provisions relate to processing direct debit arrangements:

- If sufficient funds are not available in your nominated financial account at the time of processing a payment then a dishonour fee may apply;
- If you wish to change details of your nominated financial account then you must provide AV with the details at least 5 business days prior to the next payment;
- Details of your nominated financial account will be kept private and confidential and AV will only use the details for processing payment or is otherwise required by law;
- If you wish to terminate the direct debit agreement then you must notify AV and your nominated financial institution.
- AV reserves the right to cancel or terminate a direct debit arrangement if payments are dishonoured and where an alternative payment method cannot be facilitated. Under these circumstances this may result in your Membership being terminated.

Membership every Victorian needs

Ambulance services in Victoria are not free and they are not covered by Medicare.

Just one trip in an ambulance can cost more than $1200. In fact, one event that uses air transport can cost over $11,000.

Membership fees are a vital source of funding for Ambulance Victoria to support operational activities such as paramedic training and development and new and improved equipment/vehicles.

Ambulance Victoria Membership provides you with annual ambulance cover that protects you and your loved ones against the cost of using the ambulance service*.

This can include:

- Emergency road and air transport by Ambulance Victoria.
- Ambulance treatment when you don't need transport.
- Non-emergency transport to the nearest medical facility that has been pre-approved in writing by Ambulance Victoria and medically required.
- Ambulance treatment and transport needed whilst holidaying interstate - the ambulance service in that state will take you to the nearest medical facility that can help you.

Membership will only cover transport costs when:

- You are taken by a state registered ambulance to the closest medical facility that can help and;
- there is a medical reason for the transport to occur and;
- you have passed the waiting period.

By buying AV membership, you agree:

- To read and follow the AV Membership Terms and Conditions and the AV Privacy Policy and;
- That we are allowed to change the Terms and Conditions anytime we need (so it is best to check back regularly) and;
- That the amount we charge for a membership can also change at any time.
